

Poster Stand

Model#: CPS200-1

A- Frames aka sandwich board signs are an obvious solution for businesses, and they are also great for shops that already have a prominent position, but just want to increase their signage impact and promote specials or new products. Adding and removing posters is a breeze with these a-frame style poster stands. Aluminum frame also provides a very professional feel. You can keep a range of posters on hand and change them quickly and regularly to suit different sales periods or to ensure that your footpath signage is always fresh and interesting.
